

ECC Students Attend Meet

El Camino College student government representatives participated in the semi-annual Southern California Junior College Student Government Convention Tuesday at Orange Coast College in Santa Ana County.

A delegation of 13 student officers and two faculty advisors represented El Camino at the convocation which was conducted for a mutual exchange of student government ideas between the various junior colleges.

Local representatives at the convention included Rita Kennedy, 5314 Reese Rd., Associated Women Students president.

El Camino College student commissioners who made the trip included Jim Quider, 819 Portola, commissioner of assembly and Jerry Downing, 17039 Glenburn Ave., commissioner of finance.

Faculty advisers to the delegation were Hamilton Maddaferri and Miss Mary Hancock, assistant directors of student personnel.

Through The Keystone Keyhole

The Red Cross "blitz" of March 4 in Wilmington and the Keystone area was a huge success. Our own particular area went over the top, according to J. G. Caldwell, who had charge of this section. His major workers included Mmes. C. Whittenburg, J. Rowe, R. Landon and M. Pike.

More news about the Civilian Defense program in this area. A meeting will be held at the offices of Dr. Johnston, 1827 Santa Fe Ave., tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. Representatives from Dominguez, Avalon Village and Keystone are to be present. Planning to attend from Keystone are Mmes. I. Cline, E. Cadenbach, M. Thomas and G. Jacklovich. Mrs. Irene Cline of 2194 Dolores St. has been named executive medical defense officer for the unincorporated area. Further details will be forthcoming.

Two newly organized groups of Blue Birds will meet each Tuesday afternoon at the Carson St. School. The first group is for girls who attend morning and regular sessions and has chosen the name "Blue Bonnet Blue Birds." Included in the group are Gale and Dale Bishop, Bonnie Landon, Anna Beth White, Sheila Moore, Karla Lee Cadenbach, Joyce Pugh, Barbara Linn and Kaye Lynn Owens. This group is led by Mrs. C. Linn and Mrs. I. Moore, and meets from 3 to 4 p.m. The second group is for girls who attend afternoon sessions only and will convene at 4 with Mrs. R. Landon and D. Jones as leader and assistant. This group, the "Blue Jay Blue Birds," includes Terry Lee Hamilton, Carolyn Taylor, Sandra King, Sharon Hill, Alice Johnston, Judy Pike, Evelyn Jones, Tanya Wall and Barbara Bonner. We now have leaders for a Camp Fire group, which will also meet Tuesdays, for girls interested.

Welcome it is to Edna (Bonnie) MacTaggart, who took over the secretarial duties of Lucille Marriot, who is on leave of absence from Carson St. School. Bonnie will be ably assisted by Altha Lancaster.

The kite contest at the school was postponed last Friday due to that unusual weather we had. Further notice will be forthcoming.

Small pox vaccinations occupied the time of most of Carson St.'s personnel Tuesday, starting at 9 o'clock in the a.m. Poor kids—if it's not one thing it's two more!

For all who have been curious about those sheep who were to be named by Carson School children, it was discovered that they were sisters, not brother and sister as first surmised. All's well that ends well, however, and they are now known as Taffy and Mandy. Rooms 7 and 15 received the credit for the naming.

We had a little excitement in our own backyard last Monday (somewhere in the wee small hours), and didn't even know it. Some chicken-loving individual or individuals made off with Farmer Brown's prize layers, 25 in all (and eggs so much cheaper now, too!). The Hugh Browns, who reside at 2220 1/2 Grace St., are seriously considering putting all remaining livestock in their own freezer.

Jack Spence was welcomed home Saturday evening by his wife, Marie, and his two sons, Danny and Tommy. Jack has been on an extended business trip which took him to Texas. The Spences reside at 844 E. Carson St. Welcome home, Jack.

Don't forget, if you want to register to vote, Mrs. MacPherson is registering through Friday from 9 to 1 and 5 to 7 p.m. at her home, 22027 S. Figueroa St.

Banning Park Manor was the locale for the Cub leader and parent meeting of Pack 230-C Friday evening, March 7. Representatives from Scout headquarters were present to outline the Cub program to parents of new members. As it turned out, "Lack of Parental Interest" should have been the subject. The meeting was made up of committee members only, plus the two guest speakers. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. O. Hostetler, Mr. and Mrs. R. Quincy, Mr. Cox, treasurer, and A. Cochran, Cubmaster. Guest speakers were A. Moulter, Scout executive of the Harbor District, and William Doyle, neighborhood commissioner. The new charter was drawn up.

The regular monthly meeting of the Carson St. PTA board members will be tomorrow at 10 a.m. at the school. It will be followed by a pot-luck luncheon. All members are urged to be present.
